Selling Stamps At A Premium Is Illegal If A Postal Employe

Elsewhere in this issue, an article will be found concerning the purchase by Herman Herst, Jr., of Scrub Oak, N. Y. of a huge trunk of philatelic material, belonging to Joseph A. Steinmetz, of Philadelphia, whose entire collection was thought to have been sold at auction soon after his sold at auction soon after his death two decades ago. The trunk when opened contained a vast when opened contained a vast amount of valuable philatelic items, as well as reams and files of correspondence by Steinmetz, who had hoped to include all in-formation some day in a book. Including among this was a complete file of legal papers re-garding a sensational philatelic trial of almost forty years ago in which Steinmetz was a partici-

which Steinmetz was a partici-

The trial was the result of an indictment of Arthur M. Travers, Acting Third Assistant Postmaster-General of the Post Office Department, a collector in his own right, who purchased from the Post Office in Washington some of the then current blue papers, and who later was induced to part with some of them at a profit over and above face value.

Travers was indicted for conspiracy, and his case was a cause celebre, due to his prominence in philatelic circles. Despite a life of faithful service to the Government faintil service to the Government during which he actually once had won a vote of thanks from Con-gress for devotion to duty, Trav-ers was arrested, disgraced, and humiliated over the stamps in-volved, which had a face value of $1.12.

The Federal Government produced its statutes which states that no one in the employ of the Post Office Department, under severe penalties for embezzlement, is permitted to sell postage stamps of any sort for less than face value, or for more than face value. On the strength of these statutes, indictments were obtained against Travers for embezzlement, and against Steinmetz, an innocent purchaser, for conspiracy.

Looking back today on this case, Looking back today on this case, we cannot help but wonder on whose authority the Government decided to sell the newspaper stamps of 1895 with a face value of almost $200 for $5 per set in 1899. There can be no question that in so doing the officials themselves were selling stamps for less than their face value.

Commemorating The 100th Anniversary Of The American Medical Association

The announcement that the Post Office Department will issue A. is very much of a surprise. No word from Washington has even hinted that such an issue might take place. It is given though, in plenty of time for everyone to take full advantage of it. The report from the Post Office Department has the following to say.

Postmaster General Robert E. Hannegan has approved the issuance of a commemorative postage stamp honoring the doctors of America, the Post Office Department announced today.

Pulitzer Stamp Sets Record For 1st Days: Tops Al Smith Stamp

The unofficial count on the first day covers placed in the mails on the occasion of the first day of issue of the new Pulitzer stamp in New York on April 10, shows that this stamp has made a new record for the amount of covers handled and the amount of stamps sold on the first day. The previous record was held by the Alfred E Smith stamp which was issued on November 26, 1945 and of which over five million were sold on the first day.

At 9:00 a. m. the stamps went on sale at the General Post Office, and at all 85 stations of the New York Post Office. The cachet sponsored by Postmaster Goldman was applied to covers at the General Post Office. Collectors and dealers from all over the East and as far West as Kansas City, Mo., were seen in line in front of the special stamp windows.

The ceremonies at Columbia

The ceremonies at Columbia The ceremonies at Columbia University in the afternoon were most impressive. The notables attending included Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson, who delivered the chief address, Mayor William O'Dwyer, Postmaster Albert Goldman and Third Assistant Postmaster General Joseph J. Lawler, who represented the Post Office Department in Washington.

Mr. Lawler presented souvenir presented the Post Office Department in Washington.

Mr. Lawler presented souvenir sheets of the new issue to Dr. Frank D. Fackenthal, acting president of the university, and to Dean Carl W. Ackerman of the School of Journalism. Columbia University mailed 10,000 covers bearing the Pulitzer stamp to friends of the university.

Through the cooperation of Postmaster Goldman and the officals of Columbia University it was possible to purchase the stamps in any quantity at special booths erected in Low Memorial Library especially for the occasion. It was also possible to mail covers in the Library, which were later taken to the General Post Office and given the first day of issue cancellation.

A nice gesture on the part of the University was the presenta-

South African Royal Visit Issues

In our issue of March 24th, page eight, we illustrated a first day cover showing the set of these stamps from Swaziland. The issue for Basutoland is of the same design and values as for Swaziland, but for South Africa and South West Africa the de-signs are different and we illustrate the South Africa cover above. The South West Africa stamps are identical and are only different in that they are overprinted S W A in black capital

First day of issue for all four countries was Feb. 17th and the stamps are due for withdrawal from sale on April 24th, 1947. The covers at hand are those as offered some time ago in our columns by the African Collectors Exchange and those who sent for such covers should now have their covers in hand. Did You Ever Go Stamp Hunting?

We know a lot of people who get a big kick out of taking a rifle or shot gun and going out into the country and shooting squirrels or pheasants. For us, we never could see the need for this as we have nothing against the little fellows and the birds, but if people were hungry and had to do it, it might be a different thing. We have gone a hunting several times, but not with a gun. Our hunting has been for stamps and we just got back from a trip that turned out to be a flop in some ways, yet yielded us a lot of new information on an old cover that we have had in our collection and which we have refused to part with for over 20 years.. More about the cover later, but first about our first objective on this hunt.

Several years ago when in Columbus we talked with an old gentleman who was with the state banking department and had to do with the disposal of bank fixtures from closed banks of which as we all know there were many in the period from 1930 to 1935. It was back in those days that we had talked with this old man and asked him if he ever ran into any old banks that might have their attics filled with old records and papers, particularly old correspondence and ever since that time we have borne in mind one bank at Hillsboro, Ohio, which the old gentleman had told us had its third floor filled with such material and that he beileved it must be all of

Ever since that time we have had visions of finding a heap of 5c and 10c 1847 issues and perhaps some better items as Hillsboro is in Southern, Ohio, and might have had correspondence that came through on the river boats. Thus our visions were lovely and they lasted a long time because it has been twelve or fifteen years since we talked with this old fellow. Perhaps we would have done better if we had just stayed away and kept the visions for they permitted us to conjure up many things which we of course did not find for when we finally got around to taking this trip which was on April 7, we came into Hillsboro about 11 o'clock in the morning and after some inquiry at one bank which happened to be the wrong one we were very courteously met by the cashier of the correct bank and after a brief conversation and presenting our credentials, which consisted of a nice letter of introduction from our local bank, we were sunk at once by the information that the bank had been established in 1879, thus all visions of early material vanished and we lacked interest enough in material around that date to try to talk our way into the attic and see what might be there.

Anyhow, we had another object in view on this trip and did not care to waste more time than was necessary as we wanted to go to Portsmouth, Ohio and try to find some infortion to support the old cover we had as well as to go to Lexington Kentucky, for further helpful support of this cover.

This part of our trip was more successful. We learned things which we believe will lend much to the belief and the support of this old cover as being a real Postmaster Provisional. Two copies are known. We hold one and Mr. Oscar Schenck of Powell, Ohio holds the other. The one held by Mr. Short sets (6 different for 50c) Schenck has been known to collectors since about 1887, the cover I have came into my hands from an old Cincinnati Collection about 1925.

I am having some cuts made of these covers and will have a nice story on them in an early issue of this paper. The cover in my possession will be on display in the Court of Honor at the Centenary International Philatelic Exhibition in New York in May.

It is my belief that the information I have gathered is sufficient to prove that the cover is a Postmasters Provisional as many things tie together to lend to this belief. Of course more conclusive evidence is possible, but such information as I have found seems to clinch the fact that this cover is all that it appears to be and If accepted as such, will become one of the rarest of the Postmaster Provisionals.

So my stamp hunt was a pleasant one, I had fun and excitement in the hunt, not the least of which was driving over some of those Kentucky roads of which I do not want much more in the future.

The cover in question was included in the balance of the collection of Joseph A. Steinmetz, of Philadelphia. Steinmetz died a lection of Joseph A. Steinmetz, of Philadelphia. Steinmetz died about twenty years ago, and his collection was sold at auction shortly afterwards by Eugene Klein of Philadelphia. It was thought that Klein sold the entire collection, but on the passing of Mrs. Steinmetz in January, 1947, a trunk of philatelic material that was not offered in the original Steinmetz sales, and Herst negotiated the purchase of this accumulation.

Scott Publications has been edvised of the discovery of this particular cover, so that their listing may be brought up to date in subsequent editions. The cover was sent by the Third Assistant Postmaster-General to Mr. Steinmetz on June 1, 1909, and bears a plate number and imprint pair. Under the stamp appear the words:

"June 1st 1909

Original Date of Issue."

Included in the Steinmetz accumulation were almost five thousand First Flight Covers, a field of interest with which Steinmetz was identified in the late years of his life. The stamps predominating on covers were the three values of the second issue airmail, and the commemoratives in use in the 1924-1926 period, including the Walloons, Lexingtons, Norse-American and Ericssons, all of which were represented in the "find" in large quantities. An Ethiopian In The "Mail" Pile

On December 29, 1946, the Ethiopian government decided to inaugurate the resumption of its airmail service which had been interrupted by the Italian invasion in 1936. This inauguration was to have been significant for the fact that the mail was to be transported by planes of the Ethiopian Air Lines, Inc., an Ethiopian-American company which is being advised by the TWA.

In order to commemorate this historic event, the Ethiopian Post Office issued on that date three surcharged stamps. On December 29, after all arrangements had been made to issue these stamps,

The issue was stopped suddenly.

It was not until March 29, the official first day, that the Ethiopian Post Office put them into circulation under the same conditions as above. The surcharge inally stamped and no indication was made of the delayed issuence. We are advised that this set the rarest of all stamps issued by this country, for only 5,000 sets were printed. The Stamps were valid for one day only (see cover).

An Issue Of Stamps Suggested For Every Revolutionary Battle

From two of our Brooklyn subscribers, we have received clippings from the March 30 issue of the New York Sunday News. Saul L. Insel and H. C. Wichman were the gentlemen who sent copies of the following.

Hevlyn Dirck Benson, Brooklyn Colonial expert

colonial expert, claimed another victory yesterday in his all-out campaign for a postage stamp commemorating every battle of the Revolution.

Benson made public a letter appenson made public a letter approving the idea from Representative Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois. A stamp fan hinself and a member of the powerful House Appropriations Committee, Dirksen recently requested five American flow forms at the hearings. ican flag stamps at a hearing on postal appropriations. Under Consideration

..Benson wrote Dirksen a hearty endorsement. The Congressman replied to Benson at 659 St. Marks

Ave., Brooklyn:
"Sincere thanks for your gracious note of March 22. I have discussed with postal authorities the question of issuing a series of commemorative flag stamps and the matter is at least under con-

"Your idea of a stamp for each battle of the American Revolution is exactly appealing. I am so hap-py to note your interest." Stamps were valid for one day only (see cover).

The surcharges were printed on Scott type A33 stamps of the 4c, 25c and 60c values. On the top right hand corner of the above cover, where the stamps are ordinarily placed, are reproductions of the overprints applied to the three stamps. The left hand overprint is in Anharic and was applied to the low value stamp along with the surcharge of new value which raised it to 12c. This stamp is a bi-color in light blue-green and indigo, and is the one on the left on the cover.

BRITISH EMPIRE CHATTER

By Britt Kolon

We have all noted the purple pencil cross on both sides of re-gistered covers from Great Britain and its colonies. This is the evolution of the requirements on registered mail when first in-stituted. Registered mail was on registered mail when first instituted. Registered mail was then tied with a royal purple ribbon and government sealed to designate that this registered mail was under the protection of the Crown and severe penalties were provided for the treasonous act of the opening of same except by the party to whom it was addressed. As the volume of registered mail increased this purple ribbon was replaced by the purple pencil on both sides so as to be in the same position as the to be in the same position as the ribbon would be. Current mint British Colonial

Current mint British Colonial stamp prices are very low at this time and will probably advance soon. While the barter in stamps was permitted by England, large lots of mint and used United States stamps were sent over to be paid for with mint British Colonials at face. American dealers in U. S. made a substantial profit on the prices charged for their U. S. items and then disposed of the British Colonials here at face and in some cases slightly ed of the British Colonials here at face and in some cases slightly below face. The result was the large offerings to the collectors at about 25c per shilling or lower. Since this barter permission was abolished, importations of these stamps have been sharply curtailed and stocks on hand here gradually reduced. There is also a rumor that complete new sets may soon be issued for all the Crown Colonies which should result in increases in value of the result in increases in value of the current sets.

IRAO. It is reported that an air mail set is being prepared for Iraq and that the familiar Boy King set will be withdrawn and replaced with a set with the King's likeness as he is today. He has grown up since this Boy King set was issued.

CANADA. The Canadian King's visit set of three stamps issued in 1939 is becoming scarce and retail prices are advancing. With a face value of 6c they are now selling for from 15 to 18c and should go higher.

J. D. GUEVREMONT

Valleyfield, Que., Canada

Yes, one more of these Hitler covers. They loved him in the U.S. A. Just in case it's hard to make out, the second line reads "Butcher Boy of Berlin". Hitler thoughtfully tucked this cover away in a special collection, as he figured he would meet the writer, on coming over to inspect his new colony.

THE TITLE PAGES

The nation and the forces in it, that helped to change Hitler's mind about coming over is most wonderfully portrayed in the symbolic U. S. A. Title Page. This was the first Page drawn by Arthur Szyk and it was conceived and executed in 1945, the year of victory. It then took first class printers, nearly a year or more to solve the problems connected with doing a reproduction job equal to Mr. Szyk's high standards.

Since then, five other pages have been completed, though so far reproductions of only two others are available; Canada and Poland. The U. S. A. Page of course continues to keep on drawing such opinions as these:

James J. Winterhalter, Hartford, Wisc.
"The beautiful job that was done on the Title Page was amazing, never before have I seen anything like it."

Dr. Charles W. Martin, Canyon, Texas
"What's the use....I can't do them justice.
These pages are too beautiful to bury in an album. I am going to frame mine."

James Killgrove, Doylestown, Ohio

"It is better than I can possibly describe in words. I was not just surprised, but amazed."

Mrs. Irma McLane, Houston, Texas

"I have the U.S. Title Page and words can't express the pleasure I have gotten out of own-ing this one and am anxious for the other ten."

George L. Smalling, Freeport, N. Y.

"It is just too grand for words, it is simply out of this world, it is more than I ever could begin to think it would be. I want to thank you again for the privilege of owning a page like this."

GET THESE PAGES ON APPROVAL. Here are the particulars:

The U.S. A. Page is available separately at $1.10 prepaid. Or it can be had on approval. If satisfactory the buyer then remits a total of $1.50. This covers cost of page, registered first class mail, postage 30c and a special folder (well worth 50c to $1.00) for the balance. Good Canada booklet panes are used for postage. The Pages for Canada and Poland costs $2.10 each prepaid or on approval at $2.50 each, Sent as

All 3 Pages on approval in one package at $6.00. There is a saving on the postage, THE BEST AND CHEAPEST METHOD OF ACQUIRING THESE PAGES IS TO BECOME A CHARTER SUBSCRIBER. There will be 11 pages in the first set and Charter Subscribers pay only $12.10 for the entire set. Those who pay $12.10 in advance secure one page autographed by Mr. Szyk. Otherwise a $5.00 bill is enough to sign one up as a Charter Subscriber. The first 3 pages as above will be sent by return. Then will follow as issued Pages for AIRMAILS, GREAT BRITAIN, RUSSIA, FRANCE, MEXICO, CHINA, NORWAY and NEWFOUNDLAND.

Charter Subscribers can purchase additional copies of any page desired at only $1.10 each instead of $2.10 the regular price. Remittances: any way desired but always add 18c to checks to cover cost of cashing such.

VARIETY FOUND

What may, or may not be a constant variety in the new small size 5c airmail stamp is one that shows a very easily seen dot of color over the "O" of postage. This variety has been sent to us for inspection by Roger A. LeDoux, P. O. Box 12, Greenville, N. H. It appears on the lower right stamp of a block of four that were affixed to a first day cover.

It is not possible to determine the position in the plate, or the plate number from this block. Cooperation is asked of our readers to look for this variety in full sheets of stamps, so that it may be determined if the variety is constant and also the plate position and the plate number.

Tarr as to what he had in the Cuban stamp illustrated in the Mach 21 iesus of Linn's the March 31 issue of Linn's. Four correspondents were especially generous in their informa-tion and the trouble that they went to in their replies.

Lee H. Cornell, Wichita, Kans.,
R. N. Truitt, of Fulton, Mo., and
J. I. Leggett, of Watervliet, N. Y., gave detailed information of the entire issue. Charles H. Roude-bush, 4526 Forest Ave., Norwood, bush, 4526 Forest Ave., Norwood, 12, Ohio did the job up right by sending us four pages from his collection. Two of the pages from Mr. Roudebush's collection have the stamps nicely mounted on them in complete sets.

New Stamps For The Philippines

From Luna & Sons Trading, 1931 Azcarraga, Manila, Philippines, comes the above first day cover bearing a block of four of both the new 10c and 20c stamps for the new republic. The 10c is in a red orange and pictures the Bonifacio Monument, the 20c in chocolate brown pictures the Mayon Volcano. The cancels are very nicely applied, circles with "MANILA POST OFFICE" in curved line at top, "MARCH 23/1947" in three lines in the center and then "FIRST DAY ISSUE" in two lines at base of the circle. Making a beautiful cancel on the blocks and thus desirable even if removed from the cover.
